Bee Sweet Citrus Ensures Year-Round Citrus Availability for Consumers

FOWLER, Calif., - While California's citrus domestic season is still going strong, Bee Sweet Citrus is already laying the foundation for a successful summer import season.

"Every year, our team works hard to ensure that there's a smooth transition of product between California's domestic season and the start of our import program," stated Bee Sweet Citrus Sales Manager Joe Berberian. "While we are still working with several domestic varieties, we're always looking ahead to ensure our consumers that they can rely on Bee Sweet for year-round citrus availability."

A grower, packer and shipper of premium citrus, Bee Sweet's farming, production and sales team work together to communicate accurate and timely information to its consumers. While Star Ruby grapefruit, Minneola Tangelos and several other specialty varieties are still available, the Bee Sweet Citrus team is already looking ahead to its import season.

"Consumer demand for oranges, lemons and mandarins is year-round," added Bee Sweet Citrus Sales Representative Jason Sadoian. "With citrus varieties continuously increasing in popularity as a household staple, we've been working strategically with our Chilean partners to plan a smooth transition into our import season."

Set to begin around June, Bee Sweet's import program will bring in Chilean Clementines, Navel oranges, Cara Cara navels, Minneola tangelos and lemons. Domestic varieties will continue to be available into the early summer months as well.
